

Tho' we part, love should not per-ish; Mine I'm sure will stron-ger get,

Tho' we part love should not perish; Mine I'm sure will stronger get,

Hopes you've planted I will cher-ish, That we may be hap-py yet.

CHILDREN OF ZION.

E. DAVIS.

1. Children of Zion, awake from your slumber, Arouse! trim your lamps, while yet it is day; The
2. Watch ye and pray, for lo! e-ven all-ready, Signs of His coming are right at your door, See
3. Think of our Master. the signs that he gave us, Watch and pray always and keep our lamps bright, And
4. Sad was the lot of the five foolish virgins, Let us be wise then, and not meet their fate, But hour is at hand, for the bridegroom's appearing Awake! listen not to what sluggards may say.

wars, yea and tumults and great desolation, Then gird up your loins now, and slumber no more.
thus we'll shun danger and lose not the Spirit, Nor grov-el in darkness, but live in the light.
work! yes lets work and 'twill keep away slumber Be right in the track and we'll not be too late.

Oh why stand ye i-dle when so much is wanting, Pre-pare for the coming of Jes-us our King.

Up and be do-ing and then at His coming, With glorious an-thems we'll make the earth ring.